SEMI's participated in fourth plenary session under the sub-theme; "Linking farmers to transparent, sustainable and profitable inputs and output markets" where program leader, Prof. Agnes Mwang'ombe, made a presentation on Capacity Building of Seed Companies' personnel in Sub-Saharan Africa for Improved uptake of High yielding Seed Crop Varieties. SEMI's also took part in the conference exhibition alongside other 13 exhibitors. SEMI's short term training program for the different seed courses came out strongly as well as seed processing and provision of breeder seed for companies/farmers. University of Nairobi's Faculty of Agriculture courses were exhibited as well. The conference included a one day field trip to ARC-VOPI Rooderplaat and the Onderstepoort Veterinary Institute campus.
